Shall We Have a Special Session?

The different loyal papers that are published in this State have been discussing the propriety of calling an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose, among other things, of ratifying the amendment proposed by the last Congress to the Constitution of the United States, providing for the abolition of slavery. Several papers have strongly advocated such a session, that the action of Oregon may be promptly taken in the matter, and the voice of this State be given in the affirmative, and its moral force be added to strengthen the most important measure that ever was presented to the American people.

The Oregon Statesman, differing from all who have been heard to speak a decided opinion, in its last issue strongly opposes such a session on the ground that the expense may be avoided, and also because it believes that the next Legislature will not fail to adopt the amendment. It claims that the Democratic party can be beaten upon that measure alone; that we would lose just that much capital to work upon, and besides, furnish the opposition with weapons to fight us with at the next general election. There is the same force in these reasons we find in others that are entirely based on policy, and we are inclined to doubt if such a course ever secured success to any party in any permanent degree. The question at issue is not merely, will this measure build up our side of politics?—will it strengthen us in the next canvass?—but it assumes a much broader scope, and is to be viewed by us with reference to the country at large, and not within perception based only upon the petty strategy of a State politician.

There are circumstances under which a special session may be unnecessary and if based solely upon the adoption of the anti-slavery amendment be worse than useless. For instance, should the pacification of the rebel States proceed as is anticipated, should they have the good sense to accept the situation, assume their place in the Union, and themselves say amen to the measure by the adoption of it, that fact might render the action of Oregon unnecessary to secure the end desired, and save us the trouble and expense consequent upon it. This may be decided by midsummer, and then if the necessity is apparent, the Governor may call the Legislature together, or not, governed by the circumstances that shall develope in the meantime, for, should our State be needed to assist the act, we believe it our duty to speak the word as quickly as possible, and so secure without delay, the time when our Nation shall have no slave within it. Kentucky has refused to adopt the amendment, but strong influences are at work, in that State and Delaware, which may still secure their assent. It is to be hoped for the sake of National harmony and coming peace, that the slave States themselves assent to the measure and faithfully carry out its stipulations. Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky lends his voice to urge their so doing.

We, too, have no fears of Democratic success in Oregon, for the day is past, everywhere, when sympathy with treason can win. It requires no very far sighted policy to perceive that. We have many assurances that voters of the State desire a special session, if such is needed for the purpose named; but we consider next autumn soon enough to hold it, and would, if possible, save the State the expense consequent upon it. But, there are other important ends to be attained for the State if such a session is held. One of these is the framing of a good school law, which would alone repay the whole expense to be incurred. This Legislature is well fitted to do this work, from the fact that weeks of labor were devoted to that object by both houses at the late session. The bill was so well considered that it was nearly perfected then, and could be soon acted on now if receiving a few days attention from those who have the matter in so recent consideration, while it would be an entire new work for a new Legislature.

FIFTEEN MEN HUNG AT WALLA WALLA.—By passengers just down from Walla Walla we learn that a terrible tragedy was enacted there on Tuesday of this week. Some time since we were informed that a Vigilance Committee had to be organized there for self protection, and that sundry notorious characters had been notified to leave that vicinity. Of late, events have seemed to culminate in the thieving and plundering line, and judging by the Walla Walla Statesman of the 14th inst., the patience of the whole section thereabouts was utterly worn out. Many known thieves seem to have wintered in that section, and as they disappeared in the spring, the best horses of the settlers seemed to go with them. One man who had lost many cattle and horses, recovered 42 cattle, 4 horses and 2 mules on the other side of the Columbia opposite the mouth of the Touchet river sixty miles above Priest's Rapids, where they had been cached by the thieves.

We learn that two men were seen hanging by the roadside as the stage passed from Walla Walla to Wallula on Wednesday morning, and the passengers say fifteen in all are known to have been lynched thereabouts. They say 150 names of the band are known to the Vigilantes and they will be taken care of if found. The names mentioned as known to have been summarily served with justice are: Doc. Reed, Nigger Jim, one McKenzie, Tom Reeves, Charles Wilson and Joseph Petit. We are told by the Express Messenger that the work was to be extended to the Canyon City road, as the pursuit was being conducted in that direction. While we cannot recommend this summary way of proceeding in ordinary cases, still we recognize that in the frontier towns and mining regions, such is the only course to ensure safety of life and property to the peaceable and industrious.

EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS.—We clip from the Walla Walla Statesman as follows:

The road to Boise is now in a worse condition than it has ever been since it has been traveled. The stages get over the road with the utmost difficulty, and it is "next to impossible" for freight teams to travel at all. In many places the road is blocked up by snow slides, and in others it is almost impossible to wade through the slush and water made by the melting snow.

Some few persons in the vicinity of Walla Walla are preparing considerable ground for the culture of tobacco this season. We are informed that there is a tobacconist in the valley who proposes to set up an establishment in this city next fall for the purpose of manufacturing cigars, etc., out of the raw material.

All of the pack-trains and mining parties that have started this spring for Kootenai are now lying encamped on the Spokane and So[illegible], unable to proceed farther on account of the snow. The snow in that vicinity is about two feet deep, and increases in depth from there to Kootenai.

Messrs. Geo. F. Thomas & Co. have obtained from Ben. Holladay the contract for carrying the mail from Boise City to the Dalles the remainder of the unexpired term—three years and three months.

By Overland Telegraph.

DATES TO APRIL 18.

Particulars of the Attack on Secretary Seward.

WASHINGTON, April 1[illegible]—[illegible] Robinson [illegible] was in attendance on Secretary Seward [illegible] were all [illegible] the assassin [illegible] dagger [illegible] Mr. Seward, at the [illegible] window, [illegible] murder. The assassin [illegible] to the bed where Mr. Seward lay apparently in a helpless condition and gave a tremendous blow at his face. He missed the [illegible] almost fell across Mr. Seward's body. By this time Robinson recovered [illegible] caught hold of the assassin's arms. While he was thus attempting to hold the assassin the latter struck Mr. Seward on the left side of the face and then on the right [illegible] The assassin then raised up and he and Robinson got to the door together. [illegible] the assassin, reaching his left arm over Robinson's shoulder, endeavored to force him to the floor. Finding he could not hand [illegible] Robinson [illegible] he dropped his [illegible] which was around his neck, caught hold of Robinson's right arm and struck several blows with the knife. They still continued to struggle for a few moments, Robinson forcing him towards the door, which was open, with the intention of throwing him over the banisters. When they had nearly reached the door, Maj. Seward entered the room. Robinson called on him to take the knife out of the assassin's hand.

Seward immediately clutched the assassin, the latter then struck Robinson in the [illegible], knocking him down, broke away from Seward and rushed down stairs. During the scuffle, which he [illegible], says Robinson received quite a severe wound some two inches in breadth, in the upper part of the right shoulder blade, another a little [illegible] down on the same side and a slight one on the left shoulder. While struggling with the [illegible] near the bedside, he had seized the wrist of his right hand in which was the dagger and did not release his hold until knocked down by the assassin. Near the door, and after Major Seward had come to his assistance, He returned to the room after he found the assassin had escaped and found the Secretary had got off the bed on to the floor, dragging with him the bedclothes, and was lying in a pool of blood. Upon going to the Secretary he found the pulse in the wrist and stated to Miss Seward, who had re-entered the room and asked if her father was dead, that he believed he was [illegible] examination Robinson ascertained that his heart was still beating. The Secretary then said "I am not dead, send for the police and a surgeon and close the house." He then placed the Secretary on the bed, telling him he must not talk. Seward did not speak after that. Robinson remained with Seward until eleven o'clock next morning, when he was removed to the Douglas Hospital.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—We think both Secretary Seward and Frederick are better. They are sleeping quietly at this hour, 10 o'clock, a. m.

(Signed) C. A. SEWARD.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—To Sanford—Uncle is much better. He sat up for a quarter of an hour this morning and was bright and cheerful. To day there is a marked improvement upon yesterday. Frederick is slowly but surely regaining his consciousness. He has spoken twice this forenoon. He sleeps much of the time and breathes regularly and easily. His pulse and appetite are good. I think every one feels encouraged with regard to both. The messenger and nurse are both doing well. (Signed) C. A. SEWARD.

Arrest of Surratt, Who Attempted to Assassinate Secretary Seward, and other Conspirators.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—A gentleman who was at Point Lookout, Maryland, yesterday morning, was informed by an officer of a gunboat that Booth and the other conspirators, about 30 in number, were in St. Mary's county, heavily armed, endeavoring to make their way across the Potomac, which is strongly picketed, no one being allowed to pass. He also stated that on Sunday evening a small squad of our cavalry had a collision with them and had been repulsed, but succeeded in capturing one of them. Our cavalry were reinforced yesterday morning, and were understood to have them completely surrounded, so that escape was deemed impossible.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—A highly important arrest was made here to-day. The name of the party is at present withheld. He has made a full confession of being one of the conspirators against the life of the President, acknowledging himself to be the author of the letter signed "Sam," which was found in Booth's trunk.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Late last night a man disguised as a laborer, carrying a pick on his shoulder, approached the house occupied by the family of Surratt, in this city, and was about to enter when he was arrested. Upon washing the dirt from his face he proved to be quite a different looking person from what his appearance indicated. He called himself Payne and exhibited not a little embarrassment. He managed to ask in an agitated manner why he was arrested. The colored servant of Secretary Seward was sent for, when he exclaimed immediately, "That's the man, I know him by general appearance and his mouth." The servant said there could be no mistake. There were others in Secretary Seward's house at the time who probably have a recollection of Surratt's appearance, and will be afforded an opportunity to recognize him. The man arrested is believed to be Surratt, who perpetrated the dreadful acts at the house of Secretary Seward.

BALTIMORE, April 18.—It is understood that the party alluded to as under arrest here states that the original design of the conspirators was to merely capture President Lincoln some time back and make him prisoner, and in this way compel a general release of all [illegible] rebel prisoners then held by the United States. When a general exchange of prisoners commenced, however, this project was abandoned by him and others, as no longer necessary. He says he refused to have anything further to do with it and endeavored to induce the others to give up their designs upon the life of the President. This is substantially a correct statement of what the prisoner has so far divulged. He is a well known resident of Baltimore.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Herald's special dispatch says: It is reported that the assassin who entered Mr. Seward's house has been arrested. It is certain that one of the assassins, probably Surratt, has been arrested. Samuel Mattoon, of Hookstown, Md., the one who wrote the letter found in Booth's trunk signed "Sam," has been arrested.

President Johnson's Views.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Post's special dispatch says: President Johnson yesterday said to a clergyman who begged of him to be merciful to the rebels, that mercy to individuals was not always mercy to the State. He also declared to a prominent member of Congress that he was acting to act with the utmost magnanimity toward the common people of the rebel States, but the unrepentant leaders must be punished.

Stoneman Destroys Immense Stores in North Carolina.

LEXINGTON, Tenn., April 16.—The expedition under Stoneman which left Knoxville on the 19th of March, struck the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad on the 11th at Wytheville, Christiansburg and Salem. Between these places 35 bridges were burned and 25 miles of track totally destroyed. Many prisoners were taken and considerable quantities of corn and other stores were destroyed. On the 6th, Stoneman moved on Jacksonville, Danbury and Mocksville, arriving at Grant's Creek, three miles from Salisbury. N[illegible] The rebel line was defended by artillery and infantry, but was soon forced, and our forces entered Salisbury at 10, A. M., capturing eight stand of colors, fourteen pieces of artillery, 1,165 prisoners, 1,000 stand of arms, all the accoutrements, a million rounds of small ammunition, 10,000 of fixed ammunition and shells, sixty thousand pounds powder, 75,000 complete suits of clothing, 250,000 army blankets, 20,000 pounds of leather, 160,000 pounds salt, 20,000 pounds sugar, 27,000 pounds rice, 10,000 saltpetre, 50,000 bushels wheat, $100,000 worth of medical supplies and 7,000 bales of cotton. Thirteen pieces of artillery were brought away, all the other stores not needed for Stoneman's immediate command were destroyed. The greater part of these supplies had just been received from Raleigh. One large arsenal, with machinery complete, two engines and trains, several bridges between Greensboro and Danville, and also on one side of Salisbury, together with several miles of railroad track, were destroyed. We lost very few killed and wounded. Among the latter is Capt. R. Morrow, Assistant Adjutant General of Stoneman's staff.

Capture of Forts at Mobile.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 18.—It appears by an order issued to Gen. Sherman, announcing [illegible] the surrender of Lee, that [illegible] at Raleigh, where he arrived [illegible] April 14th.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A Senator [illegible] Virginia, to consist of delegates from all the counties [illegible] May 1[illegible].

The Herald's [illegible] dispatch [illegible] on the 16th. He was [illegible] received with the greatest enthusiasm by the population [illegible].

Another seam has been found [illegible] but has not been worked [illegible] market [illegible] The supply is immense. [illegible] of the Fell [illegible] Bay [illegible] The [illegible] formed by an English gentleman at [illegible], that a vein of [illegible] feet thick, has been found on Queen Charlotte's Island [illegible] from the Pennsylvania anthracite. The owners [illegible] and had experienced smelting works in Chili for the last four or five years. He seemed to understand the nature of ores and of coals, and the importance of this discovery. He remarked that the San Francisco capitalists might at once put up smelting furnaces at these new coal mines for their copper and other ores, instead of sending them to England. If this proves a true deposit of anthracite, the ores of Oregon especially the "bronze" copper ore of Jackson county will come to be valuable. All these coal fields, mineral deposits—lumber lands will help build Victoria or some other city in this region. Yours,

TRAVELLER.

VICTORIA ITEMS.—By the arrival of the steamer Wright, Captain Lewis, we have received files of the Victoria Colonist, from which we clip the following interesting items:

The steamer Hope on her way up on Wednesday met with an accident which might have been very serious. She had just got above the Mission and it had fallen quite dark, when she ran upon a huge snag. Luckily the snag was high out of the water, and caught her forward on the port side, close to the door of the purser's office. Had it struck under the guards, she must have sunk, and perhaps all on board perished. As it was, the snag entered the purser's office, smashing in the whole of the side and passed through the hurricane deck, about a foot above the berth in which Capt. Dodge was lying. From thence it proceeded till it caught the smoke-stack, through which it was driven, protruding some fifteen feet on the other side. Of course the steamer was brought to a stand still, and the snag had to be sawed off, above and below.

Major J. C. Ridge, the old Victorian has started for Paris, whither he was summoned by a telegram from the Emperor of the French. It is thought Major Ridge will occupy a position in Mexico only second to that held by the "Duke" Gwin.

On Saturday last the stage from Olympia to Monticello, W. T., when within four miles of the latter place, upset and rolled down the side of the bank into the Cowlitz river. The driver and passengers were saved with difficulty from drowning. The horses, stage and baggage were swept away and lost.

On Tuesday, April 11th, the American residents, to the number of about 200, chartered the steamer George S. Wright, Capt. Lewis, and proceeded outside the harbor to fire a salute in honor of the great Union victories at Richmond and Petersburg. The steamer proceeded until abreast of Beacon Hill, where the American Federal salute of 13 guns was fired, which was answered with 21 guns by a party of sympathizing friends, who had planted a cannon on the very summit of the hill. What struck us as most remarkable in the company was that no gloating over the fate of the Confederacy was visible, but a deep feeling of gladness at the probable end of the war, and the reunion of the erring States seemed to animate all.

Thos. Stratton, Unionist, appeared yesterday before the Stipendiary Magistrate to answer a charge preferred against him by Sergt. Wilmer, of the Police force, of beating Louis S. Shepard of the Confederate Saloon. The fight took place in Ehrhardt's Hotel, on Langley street, on Tuesday evening. The Unionists had been having a jollification during the day and the parties met and exchanged hard words, from which they proceeded to blows and the result was that Shepard was fearfully beaten, and Stratton lost a hand which any [illegible] pr[illegible] to prosecute.

CELEBRATION

BY THE

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF

ODD FELLOWS!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26TH, 1865.

BY AUTHORITY GRANTED BY THE M. W. GRAND Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, and the M. W. Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of [illegible], the members of Samaritan Lodge and Ellison [illegible] Encampment of this city, in connection with the members of contiguous Lodges and Encampments in this jurisdiction propose to have a Celebration in this city on the 26th instant in commemoration of the 46th Anniversary of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

The principal feature of the proposed Celebration will be a public procession of members of the Order, in full regalia, led by music, from their Hall through the principal streets of the city to the M. E. Church, where an Address will be delivered, and other appropriate ceremonies take place; upon the conclusion of which the procession will proceed to the upper story of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's Warehouse, which will be appropriately fitted up and decorated, where a dinner will be served, and other appropriate festivities will terminate the exercises of the day.

All members of the Order in good standing, are respectfully invited to cooperate with us on that occasion, and those desiring to do so are requested to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements.

Guide and Travelers' [illegible] while in the [illegible] a few days since, [illegible] book prepared by him, [illegible] traveler en route to Oregon, Washington Territory, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado, via the Missouri and the Columbia rivers. From his experience, [illegible] the explorations and superintendence of the northern overland wagon road, Capt. Mullan is [illegible] privileges possessing to the public a correct view of the country [illegible] by him in that capacity, [illegible] between the [illegible] route, the [illegible] the wealth [illegible] to miners, [illegible] western territories, and in an address [illegible] published, that was first delivered before the American Geographical and Statistical Society of New York, [illegible] history of the [illegible] having but 150 [illegible] pages, [illegible] accompanies the book [illegible] of the country in a good style. We should like to see the [illegible] of the land, and [illegible] to the following sensible suggestions on [illegible] legislation:

"The attention of Congress should be [illegible] settlement of the country. A military depot should be established at the head of the great falls of the Missouri, with a three-company cavalry post, the depot to supply a four-company post at Fort Benton, [illegible] post at Red Gate. The military post at Walla Walla should be reduced to a depot, and [illegible] post. Military roads should be [illegible]. [illegible] should be explored, [illegible] and report thereupon, [illegible] the railroad to the Columbia [illegible] to the Pacific railroad [illegible] via Salmon river to Walla Walla. The government should also test the capabilities of the Upper Missouri and Yellowstone for steam navigation [illegible] as well as aid to the building of the Pacific railroad [illegible] the Indians should be concentrated [illegible] and two superintendencies established, one for the Columbia [illegible] and one for the Rocky Mountain tribes. A new territory [illegible] established east of the Cascade Mountains. [illegible] said in this small book [illegible] the interests [illegible] about which it treats.

The Passover.—The feast of the Passover, the most noted of the observances of the Jewish Church, commenced on the 10th of the month, and will end on Tuesday next. The Feast, says the Alta California, "was established in commemoration of the [illegible] of the Hebrews from Egyptian Bondage, and the [illegible] passage of the Red Sea, and during the time (two weeks) the strict professors of the faith [illegible] unleavened bread." Other celebrated writers, including [illegible], says it was "instituted to commemorate the providential escape of the Hebrews in Egypt, when God, smiting the first born of the Egyptians, passed over the houses of the Israelites which were marked with the blood of the paschal lamb." This feast [illegible] of the Jewish religious year [illegible] in the fall—and will be followed by another [illegible] festival, called Pentecost, celebrated on the fiftieth day of the Passover.

J. Wilkes Booth.—The assassin of the President, J. Wilkes Booth, appears in the group on "Frederick & Co.'s Portrait carte de visite," one of which was owned by Mr. John Ward of the Crystal Saloon, in this city. The card was taken to Mr. Buchtel, at Woodard's Gallery, on the morning of the 24th, and enlarged by Mr. Brink, from which copies were photographed yesterday, and last evening Mr. Buchtel laid specimens of the assassin upon our table. It is a life-like portrait, taken from an original photograph, and not only shows to what extent photography lends in familiarizing faces, but is a credit to the energy of the operator in bringing out the resemblance, that our people may know the character [illegible] appearance, of the man. Copies of the picture will be for sale to-day.

The Unnotorious Jimmy.—Report is now that the determined Jimmy, (Master of the steamer Jenny, Jones has cut stick and run from the officers with his vessel, leaving Puget Sound surreptitiously. The steamer E. Anderson, Capt. Finch, started in pursuit, but after a fruitless chase returned to port, leaving Jimmy to pursue his course in the direction of Japan. These reports were current at Victoria just previous to the departure of the steamer George S. Wright for Portland on the 18th inst. It will be remembered that Jimmy had his "papers" to clear from the port of Victoria at the time he remained on shore and his Chief Officer took the steamer. On the other side, "and it will not be surprising, in due time, to learn of an American vessel "drifting" into a harbor on the coast of China or Japan, in a disabled condition, or eventually [illegible] a useful craft on the Amoor.

The Northern Telegraph.—We were incorrect a few days since in stating that the northern telegraph line was completed between New Westminster and Victoria. Dallas was up from Seattle to the former place, and now the route is being traced, for extending the wire to Vancouver Island. The Victorians are just waking up to the necessity for action on their part to secure communication with the outer world. Superintendent Gamble was in Victoria when the steamer George S. Wright left for this port.

Cleansing Streets With a Pneumatic Machine.—An ingenious thought has struck M. Agudio, of Paris, who proposes to cleanse the streets with a pneumatic machine. He has invented a mud-cart, consisting of a close mud box, from which the air is pumped by a small engine on the top. Some machinery behind, as the cart moves on, scrapes or rakes the mud together, which is, of course, sucked up by a tube dipping into it, and brought from the upper part of the cart-box. Such an invention would work wonders in Portland.

Returned.—Capt. Leon. White returned from British Columbia by the steamer Geo. S. Wright, yesterday. We learn that he was not as successful as was desirable in the project of securing the right to navigate the upper Columbia, the British preferring to let the country "develop itself," but he will go on with his enterprise, and build the steamer commenced at the Little Dalles, near Colville.

For Westport.—The bark Helen W. Almy leaves the city to-day taking about twenty cords of [illegible] tons of bran for San Francisco, but will [illegible] lumber at Westport, having some 250,000 feet engaged for a cargo.

Death of Mrs. Mary Garrison.—The death of this estimable matron is announced in another column, resulting from injuries received by a fall some weeks since. The funeral will be attended at the Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Choice Engravings.—The advertisement of Mr. A. B. Richardson this morning, indicates the arrival of a very choice lot of engravings from New York, which will be disposed of on Wednesday next.

Death of Martin, the Wizard.—The Union Vedette, of March 21st, says there is a rumor in Salt Lake City, that Martin, the Wizard, has recently met with a very sudden death. He last traveled in Utah.

Attention is called to Thos. Kearney's advertisement, "Notice to the Public."

Gov. Bramlette, in a message to the Kentucky Legislature, has expressed his regret at the action of its members in not ratifying the constitutional amendment to abolish slavery. He thinks it would have been much more politic for them to have approved it, instead of leaving the question open to be passed upon by their successors, thus keeping up the agitation of the matter; for he believes that slavery is irrevocably doomed, and that no one can entertain the faintest hope of its continuance.

FOUND!

I have engaged the services of R. A. DESMOND—formerly of Humphrey's Gallery, New York City, and lately of Wm. Shew's Gallery, San Francisco—and am now prepared to take as good CARD DE VISITES and LARGE PHOTOGRAPHS as can be taken in San Francisco. Gentlemen and Ladies are invited to call and satisfy themselves. Negatives preserved if requested.

Brandreth's Vegetable Pills.—This medicine, of enduring efficacy, is justly prized as a corrector of all disorders of the stomach and bowels, the common symptoms of which are costiveness, spasms, loss of appetite, sick headache, giddiness, sense of bloating after meals, dizziness of the eyes, drowsiness and cramping in the stomach and bowels. These symptoms being suffered to remain, a torpid state of the liver supervenes, and all the horrors of dyspepsia are experienced. [illegible] BRANDRETH'S PILLS will soon restore the system from this state of misery. Two or three doses will convince the afflicted [illegible] The stomach will be [illegible] strength, a healthy action of the liver will soon take place, and instead [illegible] appearance, activity, strength and renewed health will be the blessed result. WISTAR'S BALSAM
WILD CHERRY!
HAS BEEN USED [illegible] NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
[illegible] IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last [illegible] and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of [illegible] of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:

S. H. Pinley, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.;
E. Boyden, M. D., Exeter, Me.;
Alexander Hatch, M. D., China, Me.;
R. Fellows, M. D., Hill, N. H.;
W. H. Webb, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.;
W. B. Lynch, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.;
Abraham Skillman, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.;
H. D. Martin, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas, for the fame and virtues of WISTAR'S BALSAM have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will have the printed names of both Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston, Mass., and J. D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac similes of the signatures of "I. Butts," "Sanford & Park," and "H. Wistar, M. D."

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds, "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will thank and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

OREGON REPRESENTED IN THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The following account of the Rev. Mr Pearne's efforts in connection with the Christian Commission, reached us by mail a day or two since. We copy from the printed slips sent us from Philadelphia:

A VOICE FROM [illegible].

The Union of our beloved country and the unity of the Church of Christ are beautifully exemplified among the delegates of the Christian Commission, representing every State in the Union, and all departments of the church. Oregon has sent her representatives as well as Maine. The following report of Rev. Thomas H. Pearne, of Portland, Oregon, is such a record of faithful labor, and of God's blessing upon it, as must cheer the heart of every reader. Hundreds of similar tenor could in its testimony to a blessed revival in the army.

Report of Thomas H. Pearne, Methodist Minister of Portland, Oregon.

FEBRUARY 20th, 1865.

DEAR SIR:—A report of my work as a delegate of the Christian Commission, with such incidents of interest as have come under my observation I give you herein.

The following is my statistical statement:

Date at which I entered upon the service: January 7th, 1865.

Date when my service ended: February 20th, 1865.

Number of days in service: Forty two, i. e., including travel one way.

In what Military Department or Naval Squadron: In the armies of the James and Potomac.

In what camps, hospitals or vessels: Point of Rocks, Army of James, Birney Station, Henry Station, Mill's Station, all in Army of James; City Point, Patrick Station, Hatcher's Run, Army of Potomac.

Number of meetings conducted by me while in service: Sixty.

Number of sermons delivered by me while in service: Twenty two.

Number of addresses delivered by me while in service: Thirty.

Number of funeral services conducted: None.

Number of letters written for soldiers: Forty.

To the above statistics, I add the following: I have conversed personally, with 2,000 well soldiers and 1,000 sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals and on the field. I have distributed 200 testaments, one half of them German; and 20,000 pages of reading matter, including newspapers and books; given out 6 papers of needles and 2 lbs. thread, two gross of pens, 4 reams of letter paper, 2,500 envelopes, 8 dozen pencils, 6 papers of pins, 54 pairs socks, 46 shirts, 24 pairs drawers, 2 lbs. woolen yarn, 12 pairs suspenders, 12 handkerchiefs, 34 towels, 6 dozen combs, jellies, cordials, &c.

BATTLE OF HATCHER'S RUN.

At the battle of Hatcher's Run, I was working all night and the next day, ministering to the comforts of wounded and suffering soldiers, helping them from and into ambulances and cars, dressing wounds, giving to them coffee, farina, cordials, and words of comfort and cheer. But for such ministrations, much pain and mortality would have resulted, for the night was bitterly cold, and some of the soldiers remained in ambulances ten hours; they were scantily covered, some of them having but a single blanket. As it was, three died in the ambulances, whose wounds were not necessarily fatal. The number receiving attentions from delegates on the night and day named, was upwards of eight hundred. Their gratitude was very earnest and demonstrative. An Irishman, whom I had several times assisted, and who was shivering in the bitter cold, inquired of me, "Are ye a chaplain?" "No." "A surgeon?" "No." "And what be yees, then?" "A delegate of the Christian Commission." He added, "I don't know much about that society; but I say, God bless all the likes of yees."

Laying a noble looking young soldier down in the straw, in the car, I observed in his overcoat pocket what I supposed was a Bible. With his leave, I took it from his pocket. It was a Bible, well-worn from much use. On the fly-leaf I found this inscription: "To my dear son, Edward, from your mother. My son make this precious volume the guide of your youth." I asked him if he read and loved to read that book. The tears filling his eyes, and his voice trembling with emotion, he replied, "I do." I inquired, "You are a Christian, then?" With flowing tears, he replied, "I trust I am."

THE AMPUTATING TABLE.

A young soldier was brought into the amputating room. His wound was of the arm. Confronting the ghastly spectacle which four amputating tables presented, as he entered and was seated near the door, to await his turn, he turned pale and became faint. I assisted him into the hall, laid him down on the floor, and gave him some water. The large drops of sweat standing on his pale face showed the shock his system had received. Bending over him, I told him not to be alarmed, the operations to the subject under the influence of chloroform were painless. He listened and thanked me. Recovering soon, I assisted him into the room. He took his place on the table, was chloroformed and treated, and as he was carried past me on the stretcher, he said, with an earnest emphasis, "Chaplain, I thank you very much."

A young soldier, with a shoulder wound, was awaiting his turn. He was only 17 years old. He was faint. I pillowed his head. Said I, "Are your parents living?" "No, my mother died since I entered the army, my father before." "Were they religious?" "My mother was." "Do you love the Saviour?" "No," said he, and weeping, he added, "I do want to be a Christian."

An adjutant of a New York regiment, whose term lacked only ten days of being out, was wounded in the knee. Reviving from the chloroform, after t[illegible]tion, he burst into tears and exclaim[illegible] at will my poor father say when he h[illegible]?" After his removal to his cot, I co[illegible] him as I was able, and I have reason to hope that the seed then sown fell on good ground, and will yet yield its precious harvest of salvation.

Two things specially impressed me during this battle scene. The uncomplaining, cheerful patience of the wounded men under intense suffering, and the almost maternal gentleness and tenderness of the nurses and ambulance drivers towards them.

ALONG THE LINES.

Distributing tracts, newspapers and little comforts among the soldiers in camp and along the lines has been an arduous, but delightful employment. The men are accessible and thankful. Several instances of conversion have resulted from such effort.

THE HOSPITALS.

In the hospitals as many as fifteen or twenty have professed religion under my observation, some of whom have since died in the faith and triumph of Christianity. I generally found the writing of letters for the invalids to be the most available avenue to their hearts. One young soldier wished me to write for him to his mother. He was suffering from chronic diarrhœa. He had not been religiously trained, and was thoughtless and profane; so much so that he was reproved for it by one of the nurses. I instructed him, prayed with him, and directed him to the Saviour. At first he was averse to talking on the subject. After awhile he listened. In a few days he prayed, and after about two weeks from the time I first saw him he died. Only ten minutes before he expired, he assured me he felt prepared and happy to go to his heavenly home.

REVIVAL SCENES.

In the preaching and prayer meetings which I attended, the spirit of God prevailed in great power. Whenever I made a call for seekers of religion to rise for prayers, from five to twenty would respond. I never called for them in vain. I have seen at different times more than three hundred thus rise for prayers, and I have had the pleasure of hearing hundreds bear testimony to their conversion during the time of my labors among them. At Henry, Birney, Point of Rocks, Jones' Landing and City Point stations I have witnessed revival scenes of deep and memorable interest.

It has been my privilege to preach among the colored soldiers in the twenty-fifth corps, and also to attend their schools, taught by our delegates. There are some twelve or fourteen of them in the two armies before Richmond, with an average attendance of forty to fifty. The negroes are eager to learn, and they make good proficiency. At the colored soldiers' meetings the men speak with great readiness, and some of them with much appropriateness and force.

THE CHAPEL TENTS.

The chapel tents are a crowning feature of the Christian Commission. At that of the regiment of Chaplain [illegible], of the one hundred and ninety-third Pennsylvania volunteers, some ninety soldiers profess to have found the Saviour. At that of the two hundred and fifth Pennsylvania volunteers, seventy-five professed conversions are reported, all of them in both regiments within five or six weeks. It was my privilege to dedicate three of these chapel tents during my term of service for the Commission. A Colonel said to me that he regarded them as doing more good than all its other appliances.

THE HARVEST.

In closing this report, which though long, is quite too short even to give an outline of the Christian Commission's operation falling under my notice, I must add that I have never [illegible] or [illegible] equal pleasure in [illegible] now [illegible] at [illegible] in [illegible] which [illegible] have [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] give us present results. [illegible] dates are open [illegible] hearts are [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] these [illegible] forts and [illegible] the Christian Commission [illegible] achieved [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] shall the army be evangelized, but the whole land be wrapped in a flame of pentecostal revival and salvation.

THOMAS H. PEARNE,

Delegate of Christian Commission.

GEN. SHERMAN AND [illegible] BRITISH [illegible] AT SAVANNAH.—The following [illegible] the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, on the authority of an officer on General Sherman's command. The company has been mentioned by army correspondents at Savannah, but without the embellishments here given, which may have been added to the party for making "a good story":

Upon the arrival of Gen. Sherman at Savannah, he saw a large number of British flags displayed from buildings, and had a curiosity to know how many British Consuls there were there. He soon ascertained that these flags were on buildings where the cotton had been stored away, and at once ordered it to be seized. Soon after that, while the General was busily engaged at his headquarters, a pompous gentleman walked in, apparently in great haste, and enquired if he was Gen. Sherman. Having received an affirmative reply, the pompous gentleman remarked, "That when he left his residence United States troops were engaged in removing his cotton from it, when it was protected by the British flag."

"Stop, sir," said General Sherman, "not your cotton, but my cotton—my cotton, in the name of the United States Government, sir. I have noticed," continued General Sherman, "a great many British flags here, all protecting cotton. I have seized it all in the name of the Government."

"But, sir," said the Consul indignantly, "there is scarcely any cotton in Savannah that does not belong to me."

"There is not a pound of cotton here, sir, that does not belong to me, for the United States," responded Sherman.

"Well, sir," said the Consul, swelling himself up with the dignity of his office and reddening in his face, "my government shall hear of this. I shall report your conduct to my government, sir."

"Ah! pray, who are you, sir?" said the General.

"Consul to Her British Majesty, sir."

"Oh! indeed!" responded the General. "I hope you will report me to your Government. You will please say to your Government, for me, that I have been fighting the English Government all the way from the Ohio river to Vicksburg, and thence to this point. At every step I have encountered British arms, British munitions of war, and British goods of every description, at every step, sir. I have met them, sir, in all shapes; and now, sir, I find you claiming all the cotton, sir. I intend to call upon my Government to order me to Nassau at once."

"What do you purpose to do there?" asked the Consul, somewhat taken aback.

"I would," replied the General, "take with me a quantity of picks and shovels, and throw that cursed sand hill into the sea, sir. You may tell your Government that, sir. I would shovel it into the sea, sir; and then I would pay for it, sir—if necessary. Good day, sir."

It is needless to add that General Sherman was not again troubled with the officious representative of her Majesty's Government.

[illegible], March 26, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,

Sole Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen—[illegible] made by Mr. Lillie, [illegible]

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 15th of February last, a fire occurred in our [illegible] which destroyed a number of buildings, and consumed the [illegible] We lost [illegible] called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, that you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to see how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenzie & Hart just opened their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as hard, pork, [illegible]—was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was not one of Lillie's safes have subjected to the same fire faring, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servants,

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For those diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, [illegible] the [illegible] to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

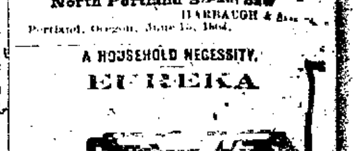
EUREKA



IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING CLOTHES WRINGER

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM

AT OREGON STATE FAIR IN 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco "MECHANICS' INSTITUTE" INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these Excellent Household Helps were found competing for popular favor. Though none of them are entitled to a Premium, we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Traver & Bro., worthy of honorable mention." (NOTE—No Premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern Manufacture.)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are made superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS,

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon garments and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its entire construction is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one. It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time, Labor and Clothes. M. E. TRAVER & BRO.,
